Application documents to attach:

Curriculum vitae et studiorum

Motivation letter

Copy of your bachelor's degree¹ (if you have a master's degree, please attach both the certificates) along with official transcript of records of all your degrees^{1, 2}
or in case you have not graduated yet³:

² All submitted documents must be in English or Italian.

If the university degree has been earned abroad, it is necessary to enclose the final degree in original (or its authenticated copy), its translation into Italian language and its value declaration or equivalent declaration issued by ENIC-NARIC. The validity of any registration is subject to the evaluation of the compliance of such university degree by the academic bodies.

³ Students not yet graduate and on track to graduate within April 2020 (a.y. 2018/2019) are welcomed to apply: if the selection is passed, and all the other requirements fulfilled, graduating candidates will be admitted "with reserve" to attend the Master's program. Under penalty of forfeiture, they must promptly notify to Segreteria LUMSA Master School the successful completion of the qualification, which must take place within April 2020 (last useful graduating session of the a.y. 2018/2019).

- A certified statement from your university (for Italian students: self-certification) confirming that you are in the last year of your undergraduate/graduate studies (a.y. 2018/2019) along with official transcript of records²

If the university degree has been earned abroad, it is necessary to enclose the final degree in original (or its authenticated copy), its translation into Italian language and its value declaration or equivalent declaration issued by ENIC-NARIC. The validity of any registration is subject to the evaluation of the compliance of such university degree by the academic bodies.

- One of the following English language certificates:
 - Cambridge test (minimum level B2) or
 - IELTS (minimum grade 6.5) or
 - TOEFL (minimum grade 85)

If you hold a bachelor's degree entirely taught in English, you are exempted from providing the above English language certificate.

You may also upload a screen print with your test results (from the test organization's website).

Applicants not holding a certificate can still apply and, upon conditional offer, will be assessed by an English Knowledge Interview.

- A copy of the ID Card /Passport
- A copy of the Fiscal code (if any)
